THEATER QUILTS BILLBOARDS FOR NEWSPAPER ADS.

Chicago, Ill., Saturday.—Five weeks ago the management of the Columbia Theater, a burlesque house, entirely abandoned billboard publicity. Since then it has confined its advertising strictly to the columns of the newspapers.

"We have been playing to an average weekly attendance of 11,000 since we quit using the billboards," said Mr. E. H. Wood, the manager, in discussing the change today. "Our business is better than ever," he continued, "and the patronage averages higher in the quality of its personnel. I attribute both these facts directly to a more generous use of newspaper space and to the consequent added dignity which burlesque of the better, cleaner class acquires thereby."

Mr. Wood was the first in Chicago to give up the use of lithographs in the windows of stores, barber shops, saloons and other places, and to abolish the distribution of free tickets. Many local theatrical men sound a warning against this innovation. They thought it altogether too bold and dangerous a step. Today nearly all the theaters down town have quit the window lithograph business and the free list.

"More than a month ago," said Mr. Wood, "we took what appeared to be a still more radical step when we gave up billboard publicity. You may be sure I did not take this step blindly. I stood in the lobby of the house here day after day for a long time and asked many patrons as they came in how they came to be attracted to the show."

Not in one single case did a man tell me he had seen or read our advertisement on a billboard. An overwhelming majority said they had read the advertisement in a newspaper. I am convinced from the answers I got from these patrons that fully ninety per cent of those who come to this house are regular readers of the newspapers in which we advertise, and for that reason I abandoned the billboards."

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

Men Who Escaped at Alcatraz Said to Have Been Desperate in Prison

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 18.—Thos. V. Frayne and Michael Mullins, military convicts, who made their escape from the prison at Alcatraz Island, Cal., Saturday by sawing the bars of their cells and leaving the island by means of a raft, were two of the most desperate men ever confined in the military prison here, according to Lieut. Col. Slavens, warden of the prison.

The men were transferred from Fort Leavenworth to Alcatraz last January.

While confined here Frayne was tried thirteen times by court-martial and one hundred and thirty-four times by the executive officers of the prison.

Mullins was tried five times by court-martial and two hundred times by executive officers. Frayne once tried to make his escape by hiding in a boiler.

Both men were brought to Leavenworth from Fort Jax, N. Y. Frayne was serving a sentence of five years and six months for desertion and assault. Mullins was convicted of fraudulent enlistment, desertion, escape and assault. His sentence was thirteen years.
